A word on market value, performance and investment returns

-You can only benefit from the Product's positive Minimum Return and Enhanced Performance, if any, at maturity. If the Index performs strongly during the Investment Term, but the Enhanced Performance at maturity is null or negative, you will not earn any return above the Minimum Return.

- The iSTOXX Europe Next Dividend Note (ZAR) is a structured Product. Due to Product characteristics and market factors (such as volatility, interest rates and the credit rating of the Guarantor): the market value of your investment is not equal to the performance of the Index during the investment life.

-If you wish to exit your investment before the Maturity Date, you will receive the market value of your investment (2) (as shown on page 1), which could be significantly less than the principal invested, and different from the performance of the Index at that time.

-If you hold the investment until maturity, you are entitled to receive a potential return as described on Page 1. Full Product information is available in the Product brochure and other relevant documents (such as the Pricing Supplement and the Base Prospectus for the issuance of the Notes).

Product risk considerations

- Investors are only exposed to the performance of the Index as measured on the Final Observation Date, and will not benefit from a higher level of the Index observed on any other date.

- Investors will not receive any additional return above the Minimum Return if the Index Performance is negative.

- Principal protection is only applicable at maturity(3). Early withdrawal is subject to market valuation, which may be significantly less than your Initial Investment.

- There is a risk of partial or total loss of your Initial Investment in the case of bankruptcy or payment default by the Issuer BNP Paribas Arbitrage Issuance B.V. or the Guarantor BNP Paribas S.A.

- The market value of the investment during the Investment Term changes not only according to the Index performance but also according to other market parameters such as its volatility, interest rates and the credit rating of the Guarantor and Issuer.

(1) The date on which the Initial Index Level is recorded.

(2) Market value of your investment is subject to a bid-offer spread, no greater than 1%. Early sale of your investment will be at the bid price which may differ from the market value shown on Page 1. You may lose part or all of your initial capital investment.
