CAPITAL PROTECTED MULTI-ASSET ACCELERATOR (ZAR)

INVESTMENT DESCRIPTION AND RATIONALE

This term-based buy and hold investment offers investors the opportunity to add a defensively positioned multi-asset linked note to their investment portfolio.

Why do we say, “defensively positioned”? It’s for a few reasons, they are:

- There is full capital protection regardless of Index performance, provided investors remain invested for the full term.
- There is an enhanced Participation Rate to maximise the returns possible from the Underlying Index.
- The Underlying Index was deliberately selected from the more cautious end of the spectrum where the use of a dynamic multi-asset class strategy for asset class diversification coupled with volatility controls is used to deliver a very stable return profile. There is more about the Underlying Index on page 3.

29 April 2025

CLOSING DATE

Should the Underlying Index (as calculated from Strike Date to Final Observation Date) be positive, investors will receive the calculated return multiplied by the Participation Rate.

If the Underlying Index is below the initial index level on the Final Observation Date, then investors will receive their capital back but no growth. Examples of what investors can expect at maturity under certain Underlying Index performance scenarios is detailed on page 4 under “Example Return Scenarios”.

It is important to note further that there is no foreign exchange risk or benefit to investors in this investment. Investors invest in South African Rands and receive South African Rands back on the Maturity Date. The performance of the South African Rand against the underlying currency of the Index (USD) has no impact on the returns payable.

SUITABILITY

This investment may be suitable for investors who:

- Are seeking the opportunity for higher returns than current cash rates at the time this investment is launched.
- Are seeking a growth oriented investment.
- Understand the impact of global economic issues and how they will affect the investment.
- Understand the criteria which will determine the return they may receive.
- Can afford to have their cash invested for the full term of the investment and are happy to remain invested until maturity.
- Wish to use this investment as part of a well-diversified portfolio.
- Have read and understood the mechanics of the Underlying Index and the various documents provided by the Issuer explaining the methodology.
- Understand the risk to capital in the event of a counterparty default.
- Accept that the trading price will likely mean they get back less than they invested, if they needed to sell the investment early.

SECONDARY MARKET

Although the investment is sold to be a part of a buy and hold strategy the Issuer will endeavour to provide quotes under normal market conditions for early redemption purposes upon request, subject to a Bid-Offer spread of 1%.

Investors should be aware that if they sell their investment before maturity, the trading price will likely mean they get back less than they invested, especially earlier in the investment term. In addition, a decline in the Issuer's credit quality is likely to reduce the market value of the investment and therefore the price an investor may receive in the case of early redemption.

In the secondary market, traded prices will include any accrued interest. Sale trades will settle 2 days after the trade date.

BENEFITS

- 100% capital protection regardless of the Underlying Index performance, provided the investment is held for the full Investment Term.
- Broad geographic and asset class exposure.
- The volatility control applied in the Underlying Index should ensure steadier performance in more volatile market conditions.
- Enhanced returns through a Participation Rate greater than 100% so as to maximise potential growth.

RISKS

- Returns are conditional on market performance.
- It is possible that the rules-based methodology of the Underlying Index might under perform the underlying assets if investors had held them directly
- The risk control or "volatility control" overlay employed may limit overall levels of the Underlying Index in rising equity markets and may provide imperfect, limited protection in falling equity markets, particularly against sudden, large equity losses.
- Investors will be exposed to the senior unsecured credit risk of the Issuer. If the Issuer becomes insolvent or cannot make the payments, some or all of their investment could be lost.
- Early redemption by the investor could mean they get back less than they invested regardless of the Underlying Basket performance.
- Should investors need to sell their investment before maturity, the trading price will likely mean they get back less than they invested.

Investment Design and Distribution or IDAD for short was established in 2002 and our approach from the outset, is what we call the "IDAD Difference". The selection of the investments we offer is not decided in terms of profitability alone and when developing investment products, we favour evidence over dogma.

We are happy to work with advisers and product providers alike to deliver a range of investment options to suit differing investor wealth strategies and are committed to building upon our reputation for bringing benefits to all involved in the investment process, but most importantly to the investors.

FACTSHEET

UNDERLYING INDEX

The BNP Paribas Multi Asset Diversified 5 Index represents the combination of a diverse range of assets (equities, bonds and commodities) with a daily allocation methodology and a risk reduction mechanism.

The Index seeks to measure the performance of different asset classes across several geographic regions. The index dynamically rebalances its weighting to these assets daily, based on a momentum signal i.e. allocates to the assets that have recently performed the best but within a certain level of volatility. In addition, it includes a daily risk control mechanism which seeks to further reduce volatility and avoid large drawdowns.

We encourage investors to read and understand the information the Issuer has provided via their website.
