4. The source of collection of your personal information

We collect personal information directly from the following data subjects: or from an authorised representative of the data subject:

- Prospective clients who enquire about our financial services
- Clients who have appointed the representative as their broker
- Policyholders who enter into a policy with an insurer via AOS

- Authorised Representative of the data subject

Personal information is collected directly from you through the completion of an application form, online forms or during consultation with your authorised representative. These forms are completed either electronically or in hard copy.

We may also collect information about you from other sources such as external third parties and from cookies on our website.

5. Law authorising or requiring collecting of the personal information

As an authorised financial services provider, we are obligated in terms of the following legislation to collect your personal information insofar as it relates to the rendering of the relevant financial services to you:

- Financial Advisory and Intermediaries Services Act 37 of 2002
- Financial Intelligence Centre Act 38 of 2001
- Insurance Act 18 of 2017
- Short-Term Insurance Act 53 of 1998
- Long-Term Insurance Act 52 of 1998.

6. Purpose for Processing your Information:

We collect, hold, use and disclose your personal information mainly to provide you with access to the services and products that we provide. We will only process your information for a purpose you would reasonably expect, including:

- Complying with the obligations contained in the contract concluded between yourself and AOS
- Providing you with products and services that suit your needs as requested
- To verify your identity
- To issue, administer and manage your investment products
- To notify you of new products or developments that may be of interest to you
- To confirm, verify and update your details
- To comply with any legal and regulatory requirements

Some of your information that we hold may include, your first and last name, email address, a home, postal or other physical address, other contact information, your title, birth date, gender, occupation, qualifications, past employment, residency status, your investments, assets, liabilities, insurance, income, expenditure, family history and your banking details.

Some of the aforementioned personal information may be mandatory to provide within the context of product providers' underwriting requirements and disclosures.

Failing to provide compulsory information may lead to AOS's inability to carry out the functions necessary to perform as an authorised financial services provider.

7. Third parties and your personal information

We may need to share your information to third parties to provide reports, analyses, products or services that you have requested. Where we share your information, we will take all precautions to ensure that the third party will treat your information with the same level of protection as required by us.

These third parties may include:

- Client due diligence tools
- Bank verification processes
- Sanction screening tools
- Tracing agents
- The Compliance Officer of the organisation (where applicable)
- Analytics and search engine providers assisting in the enhancement of our websites
- Information technology specialists assisting us with data storage, security, processing, analytics, etc
- Auditors of AOS
- Regulatory or governmental authorities such as the Financial Sector Conduct Authority and the Prudential Authority.

8. The transfer of your personal information outside of the Republic of South Africa

Your information may be hosted on servers managed by a third-party service provider, which may be located outside of South Africa.

We confirm that the level of protection afforded to your personal information by that third country or international organisation is equal to the protection afforded by the POPI Act.

9. Complaints and objections

As a data subject, you have the right to –

- Request that we confirm, free of charge, whether or not we hold personal information about you

- Request that we provide you with a description of the personal information we hold about you, and to explain why and how it is being processed
- In terms of section 2 of POPIA, requests us to correct or delete your personal information that is inaccurate, irrelevant or out of date
